A $5,000 contribution limit is placed on an individual/family. A $30,000 contribution limit is placed on all contributions from members of a firm including contributions by their spouse and minor children. Under the new law, any lawyer or other employee is considered a member of the firm. Every firm member contribution counts toward the $30,000 contribution limit on the firm.

A contribution by the spouse or minor child of an individual is considered to be a contribution by the individual.
